REPORT ON OFFICER'S DUTING IN EFCAPOR TO OSMALD'S MURDER L. C. GRAVES - $702

Sunday, Movember 2h, 1963, was the day not for the transfer of Los Parway Oswald to the County Jail. The time set for the transfer was 10:00 AM. Shortly before 9:30 AM, J. R. Leavelle, C. H. Dherity, and I brought Cowald down from the fifth floor jail for final questioning by Capt. Fritz, Agents forrel and Kelly from the focret Service. Others prosent during the quantioning were Kr. Holmes from the H. S. Post Office Department, Detectives L. P. Fontgemery, C. H. Dhority, J. R. Leavelle, and I. Chief Curry was present only a few minutes at the barinning of the questioning and at the end just prior to Oswald's removal to the basemont. Before leaving our office with Oswald, Capt. Fritz instructed J. R. Leavelle to handouff his left arm to the right arm of Coweld. I was to walk by Oswald's left side, holding his left arm. Oswald's hand's were handcuffed together in front of him. Det. Leavelle, Osmald, and I were escerted from this office wis the jail elevator to the jail office by Capt. Fritz, Lt. Swain, and Det. L. D. Montgomory. At the inil office door that lends into the hell, we storged for a faw seconds until Cant. Frits and Lt. Swain made sure the hall-way was older. We got the all clear sign and made our way through the hall to the adds of the rawn where we had naused momentarily swaiting the arrival of our car, when suddenly out of the surging line of camera non and glaring camera lights, Jack Fuby sprang forward and fired one round from a mistol into the stonach of Lee Harvay Oswali before I could grab his mistal and disarm him-

Oswald was immediately placed in an O'Neal embulance and rushed to Parkland Hospital, where he underwent surgery within 10 minutes after his
